Dear Mr. Fremming:-

I refer to your letter 4th.inst., in which you invite me to attend the Seventh Biennial Convention of the International Association of Oil Field, Gas Well & Refinery Workers of America, which convenes Tulsa, Oklahoma, June 1, 1936.

You must rest assure that I am grateful and that I consider a great honor to have been invited to attend this convention and that it would be a real pleasure to accept immediately; but an old illness will compell me to go to the hospital or some other proper place to take care of my health, and for this reason it will be impossible for me to make the trip. Notwithstanding, if I feel better for the last part of this month, I shall be pleased to attend your meeting, of which I will let you know in due time.

With kindest regards for you and for every one in your Association, I am

Yours very truly,
