Dear Dr. Cosío:

May we congratulate you on your recent Rockefeller grant for completion of your multi-volume history of modern Mexico. Should you be free of commitment to the splendid press at the University of Texas or elsewhere for your one-volume history of Mexico from 1867 to the present day, we should be most keenly interested in the possibility of working with you to arrange for publication.

As you may know, we have published several books on the subject, including THE BIG TREE OF MEXICO by Skeaping and THE MEXICAN REVOLUTION by Quirk. Enclosed is a copy of our latest seasonal catalogue.

It would be a pleasure to hear from you.

Sincerely yours,

Bernard B. Perry

Dear Mr. Perry:

Very nice of you writing me to express your interest in publishing the one-volume Modern History of Mexico I am planning to write.

As I will not attempt this task until I get through with the last volume of the nine-volume History, the only thing I can say now is that I will keep in mind your kind offer when the time comes up to consider it.

I know some of the works published by your Press, among them professor Quirk's Mexican Revolution.

Yours sincerely
