THE AMERICANA INSTITUTE

We take pleasure in making the resources of The Americana Institute available to you and the members of your immediate family. The Institute maintains a permanent staff of highly trained research specialists whose business it is to serve you. In order that you may receive prompt answers to your questions, we ask your cooperation in observing the following rules:

1 Please be sure that one coupon with your registration number filled in is sent with each question. These coupons are of value to you as they are registered in your name and cannot be replaced. They are for the use of your immediate family only and are valid for ten years from the date of purchase.

2 Information will be supplied from published sources whenever possible and suggestions for additional sources of information will be given when necessary. Your questions will be answered as promptly as possible but we cannot guarantee to deliver answers on specific dates.

3 We will do everything possible to answer your questions, however, please bear in mind that there are certain limitations imposed upon us. We must reserve the right to decide whether any inquiry comes within the scope and facilities of the service. For example: we are not permitted to give advice on professional, financial, legal and medical subjects. We cannot supply pictures, study outlines, translations, original compositions, complete copies of poems or articles, laboratory data, solutions to mathematical or hypothetical problems, patent research, surveys requiring original research, or send chapter by chapter reviews or page by page outlines of books. We do not prepare or distribute correspondence courses or provide or administer intelligence or aptitude tests. Information on subjects relating to national defense will be handled only subject to official rules of censorship in the best interest of national security.

4 Depending upon the amount of research required, it may be necessary in certain instances to limit your inquiries to one each month. Service is inoperative if your account is in arrears.

5 In order that your inquiries may be handled with all possible speed, address all correspondence to:
