General Alvaro Obregon,
President elect of the Republic of Mexico.
Mexico City, Mexico.

My dear Sir:

I am very glad to have the privilege of writing after your name,
President elect.

When our papers were criticising many things Mexican I have said
"You do not know what you are talking about. Wait till, General Obregon is elected. He comes from my state". Etc.

I spent many months in Mexico. Having holdings in Sonora. Indeed while in Hermosillo one day I saw you there. Also there I had seen Acting President De La Huerta.

I have said these personal things but am really writing the letter to congratulate you and Mexico.

I believe in you both. You will bring about conditions that will make for peace and a settlement of all factional quarrels, and develop your people to the highest.

I wish for you and your domestic family and your political family the very best that can come to a great president of a great Nation.

Mexico has heroes of the past. Mexico has a great future.

I believe that you are the man to start her back to work and to a progress and development that only work and an opportunity to work will bring. Any influence that I have shall be used for you & Mexico.

With the best of wishes for you I am most respectfully and most Sincerely,

(Miss) Helen Kimber
