ROY CARRUTHERS
MANAGING DIRECTOR

The Waldorf-Astoria

New York

November
Sixth,
1920.

President Alvaro Obregon,
Mexico City, Mexico,

My dear Mr. President:-

I have been intending to reply to your very kind wire of September seventeenth, and since our election, which has been such a glorious victory for President Harding, I feel sure that the expectations of friendship expressed by you in your message, can now be carried out. I sincerely trust that you will soon have the pleasure of meeting President Harding and I am sure that you will have his full cooperation in cementing our two countries together with that loyal friendship which should exist between countries so dependent, one on the other.

I trust that if I can at any time be of service to you at any time, and in any way, you will call on me. It will be a great pleasure for me to do anything in my power for you here, and I hope that in the not too distant future I will have the pleasure of having you here as my guest at this wonderful hotel.

Wishing you health and prosperity, and continued success for your self and your government, I remain,

Yours respectfully,

Roy Carruthers,
Managing Director.
