

Senator A. B. Fall telephoned that R. S. Roberts, a young man whose mother lives in Las Cruces, New Mexico, was killed Friday in a train wreck near Mexico City. Authorities have advised that the body cannot be gotten to the states for about two weeks.

Senator Fall requests that General Obregon get in touch with Mexico City authorities and have the body shipped to Las Cruces as soon as it is possible to do so.

This boy, R. S. Roberts was in the employ of Ansick & Company of Mexico City.

Kindly advise Mrs. A. B. Fall at Las Cruces, New Mexico results.
