My Esteemed Sir and friend:—

I herewith take great pleasure in expressing to you my appreciation and gratitude for the genuine courtesies you have seen fit to extend to me and for which I beg to thank you most cordially.

We are preparing to leave for San Francisco Thursday evening.

I regret that your indisposition has probably made it impossible for me to personally express my thanks.

With the best of wishes for you and yours I beg to remain at your command.

Most respectfully yours,

I would greatly appreciate one of your photographs with your autograph.
