My dear Ralph:-

My trip and arrival to San Diego were perfect and up to date, I have been feeling very well. I have been also following Dr. Sooy's instructions closely.

I have sent a package in your name to the Geysers, containing a little gift for Mrs. Sooy, requesting of you to kindly give it to her with my kindest regards and expressing my gratitude for all her attentions.

Wishing you a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year, I am,

Yours sincerely,

My dear friend:

Your letter to Mr. Looy was received in due time, but since packages do not travel with the speed of air mail, I had to anticipate the package until the next stage day, Monday, of this week.

It is always nice to have a time to contemplate any pleasant thing, and I enjoyed the knowledge that you had thought so kindly of me, as much, if not more than the gift itself, which, when I saw it, delighted me.

we have intermittent showers, with sunshine between.

We were all glad to hear that your trip home was satisfactory and that you were feeling well.

Continue to take good care, and I believe you will have little difficulty
- at least, that is my hope.

Please accept my thanks for the lovely gift, and the combined good wishes of my husband and myself that the coming year will bring you all the desires of your heart.

Sincerely, your friend.

(Mrs. P.C.) Mary L. Sooy

It is a handsome purse, indeed, and one I shall carry with pride for a long time to come.
I have laid it carefully away to be used only on special occasions, for it is far too beautiful to be used on trips to Cloverdale and Healdsburg. I am looking forward to a trip to San Francisco soon, when I shall make the first use of it.

We found it quite lonely here for a few days following your departure.
Dr. Sooy arrived Christmas morning, with guests, and we enjoyed the turkey dinner. Other guests came on Saturday and remained until Sunday afternoon, when all left.

The rain started Sunday morning, and how it has poured. It cleared yesterday, and Mr. Sooy and I went to Santa Rosa to shop. The road was splendid, slightly frozen, and therefore dry. However, the rain came again last night, and today
