

July 7th'1920.

John H. Rosseter, Esq.,

San Francisco, California.

My dear Sir:

I have just arrived here to spend a few weeks at home with my family.

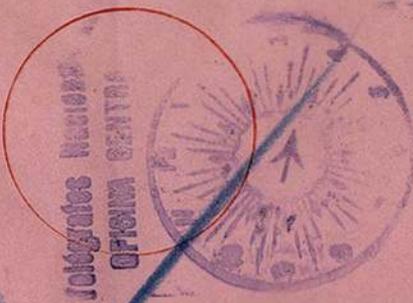

I have experienced a great satisfaction to note that you have been taking an active part in the politics of your country, as it is with the participation of men of significance and ability, in public affairs, that a great deal of good is brought to the Country.

With the elimination of the other two candidates, my candidacy to the Presidency is the only one in the field at present, and, judging by the success attained thus far, my election to that office seems to be out of the question, at the coming polls.

I wish to express to you my sincere gratitude, for past favors and specially for attentions extended to Mr. Y. P. Gaxiola, whom I have left in charge of my commercial interests here, while I am devoting my time to my political campaigning.

With personal regards for Mr. Ford and Mr. Carter, I remain,

Very truly yours,
