General Alvaro Obregon

Dear General-

We regret very much that your recent visit to San Francisco was of such short duration that we did not have the opportunity to call on you and thank you in person for the very excellent article which you so kindly submitted to us and which appeared in our January issue. However, we wish now to thank you most heartily and to extend to you the invitation to contribute again to our columns at any time you may see fit, assuring you that anything you may submit of a commercial nature will meet with our approval.

Under separate cover we send you today, also, the February issue of Pan Pacific, which is just off the press. We feel we have reason to be very proud of this number as in many respects it is the best yet and we hope to continue the high standard begun with our first issue.

When you visit San Francisco again, call at our offices and meet the editor, Mr. John H. Garrie, the Consulting Editor, J. R. McGarry, the Business Manager, Mr. B. F. Heastand, and others of our staff.

Trusting you will continue to favor us with articles concerning Mexico, upon which we know you to be an authority, we are,

Yours very sincerely,

"It is generally recognized by all foreign buyers who visit our Club that PAN PACIFIC has done more than any other American publication to develop a feeling of confidence in American methods of business and American business men. Your propaganda in favor of Pan Pacific trade, in the two ports of Seattle and San Francisco, alone, pushed us away over the BILLION DOLLAR mark, notwithstanding our lack of bottoms."

The 100 PER CENT CLUB writes:—

"Hardly a steamer enters the port that does not bring a number of foreign buyers to our show rooms as a result of PAN PACIFIC propaganda, invariably leading to the sale of large cargoes."
