Mexico City. MEX.

Muy respetado Gral. y amigo: -

A la unánime aprobación de todos los verdaderos patriotas amantes de la Libertad, uno la mia acompañada de mis felicitaciones mas sinceras, al Heroe que por el bien de Mexico ha sacrificado todo.

Le incluyo un ejemplar de La Tribuna, el cual contiene un brillante articulo de protesta contra la serie de articulos falaces, publicados por Blasco Ibañez en el "Times", en contra de nuestro país. La pluma asalariada del novelista que no le debe a los mejicanos sino agradecimientos, se ha encontrado con la protesta noble de un periodista que sin haber nacido en nuestra Patria, la ama y la defiende.

Réstame por ahora, enviarle mis mejores deseos porque todo género de bienandanzas lo acompañen, Sr. Gral., y créame su sincera admiradora y amiga

One of the largest of the many weddings scheduled for to-day will be that of Miss Helen Horsman Wilcox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Wilcox, to Major John Francis Corby, M. C., U. S. A., in the Rose Room of the Hotel Plaza. It will be a military wedding and the bride and bridegroom will pass under the crossed swords of the ushers, all of whom are officers in the army. The ceremony will be performed by Father William D. Martin of St. Patrick's Cathedral and a reception will follow. Miss Constance Devereux Wilcox will be her sister's maid of honor and little Helen Hassert, the bridegroom's niece, will serve as flower girl. Major Henry L. Kniff, U. S. A., will act as best man, and the ushers will be Major R. H. Sandinwants, Major W. H. Klingensmith, Major D. E. Winn, Major N. A. Harper, Major J. S. Gaul, Captain F. S. Pratt, Captain S. C. Smith, and Captain T. A. Potter.

Miss Wilcox is a granddaughter of Edward I. Horsman, and a great-grandniece of Philip Hone, mayor of New York in 1834. Major Corby is a son of George W. Corby of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Lois Lee Page, daughter of and Mrs. Parker Webster Page, will become the bride of Donald Clark Cottrell of Westerly, R. I., to-day in Calvary Church, Summit, N. J. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. W. Ovid Kinsolving, the rector. The bride will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Ruthven A. Wodell as matron of honor and by the following bridesmaids: Miss Mary M. Parsons
