Mi distinguido amigo:

I am going to be in Mexico the first week in March and hope that it will be my pleasure to see you.

Mr. Marlin Sandlin, chairman of the Board of Pan American Sulphur Company and Vice Presidente del Consejo y Consejero Delegado of its Mexican affiliate Azufrera Panamericana, S.A., will also be in Mexico. As you perhaps know, his company provides the revolving publication fund which has made possible the publication of many of our books from Latin America.

Mr. Sandlin and I hope that you and your wife can join us for lunch at 2 p.m. Thursday, March 7, at the Bankers Club in Mexico. We will be honored by your presence.

With all good wishes, I am

Very cordially yours,

Frank H. Wardlaw

Querido amigo Wardlaw:

Your good letter of January 30th.

Of course we shall be delighted to have luncheon with you and Mr. Sandlin. Be sure, however, that Mrs. Cosío Villegas will be allowed to sit down with us, for in the old good days ladies could not have luncheon at the Bankers Club.

Con un gran abrazo,

Yours cordially

Quirido and Wardlaw:

January 30th
Your letter of ~~Jan 30th~~ was Received on time, and, as a matter of fact, I answered it quite soon, on February ^{7th} ~~5th~~ In my letter, however, I expressed the doubt of whether ladies were allowed for membership at the Audubon Club,

for when I was a member of it (and I was for a number of years)

they were ^{restricted} ~~allowed~~ for dinner. ~~but~~ ~~not for lunch.~~

Naturally I expected a word from you, either confirming your invitation at the Club, or,
on the contrary, in some other place.
As I did not receive even in the morning of the 7th, I felt that some event had prevented you from coming to New York City, and that somehow you had been unable to advise your guests on 4

I hope my understanding was correct.

With best wishes,

~~Dr. C.V.~~

My Distinguished Friend:

Immediately after I received your query concerning women at the Bankers Club I called Mr. Sandlin and he confirmed the fact that they would indeed be welcome. I immediately dispatched a hand-written note to you conveying this information. I should have called you in Mexico but I was unaware that any uncertainty remained. My letter obviously was lost in the mails.

Mr. Sandlin's luncheon was an elegant one indeed and we deeply regret that we did not have the pleasure of your company. Please forgive me for not following up with a telephone call.

I hope it will be my pleasure to see you again soon.

All good wishes to you.

Sincerely,

Frank H. Wardlaw
