Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a ledger or account book. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is oriented vertically. The entries are organized into columns, with some entries starting with a vertical line on the left. The handwriting is dense and somewhat difficult to decipher due to the cursive style and fading. The text appears to be a list of items or transactions, possibly including names, dates, and amounts. The overall appearance is that of an old, well-used document.
