Dear Sirs:

I wrote to you a while ago, asking permission to use the Matias Romero Papers. I am a doctoral graduate student at the University of Minnesota and will write my doctoral dissertation on "Mexican-United States Diplomatic Relations, 1861-1867." I am enclosing a letter from the Chairman of the History Department of the University of Minnesota attesting to the above. ✓ I would like a letter from you granting me permission to use the Romero Papers. ✓ I would also appreciate your exact mailing address. ✓ I have been granted $3,000.00 by The Civil War Round Table, to be paid monthly during my year research in Mexico. It would be convenient for me to have this money sent for my credit directly to your bank.

I would appreciate your attention to these matters at your earliest convenience as we, my family and I, intend to depart for Mexico in early July.

Very truly yours,

Thomas Schoonover

Señor Schoonover:

Su nota de mayo 30 relativa al archivo de Matías Romero, propiedad del Banco de México.

Este archivo está abierto a todo investigador. En consecuencia le recomiendo que al llegar a la Ciudad de México e instalarse con su familia se sirva usted llamar a la señorita Guadalupe Monroy a este teléfono:

10-25-46

para concertar una cita.

Simplemente agregaría la información de que estos archivos se encuentran depositados en el piso 31 de la llamada Torre Latinoamericana (Ave. Madero y San Juan de Letrán).

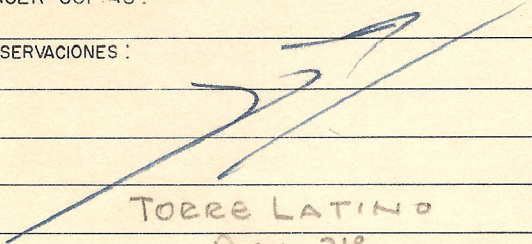

P Particularmente desearía informarle que el Banco de México es el banco central del país (algo semejante al Federal Reserve System), y que en consecuencia su trato no es con particulares sino con bancos. Con cualquier banco comercial del país puede usted arreglar los pagos mensuales que deben hacerle.

Quedo de usted, suyo,
