Dear don Daniel:

Thanks very much for your good letter of February 10.

I am taking the liberty of sending a copy of it to our friend Arthur Whitaker, who will, I am sure, be pleased to know of the interest in Mexico concerning this volume.

The Instituto Nacional de Antropología e Historia tells me that within a week or so they will publish two volumes I edited for them. Unfortunately these are very technical and are not nearly as interesting to the general public as I hope my little volume on Mexico will be. However, when I see copies of the INAH works I shall see that you get copies of them, although I doubt that your interest in Chinantec Indians and their problems is overwhelming!

With continuing warmest possible regards, I remain

Cordially,

Howard

Dear Arthur:

The enclosed copy of a letter which I received today from Daniel Cosío Villegas is self-explanatory.

It confirms my impression about the Editorial Guerrero. At the same time it was interesting to see that the Editorial Hermes independently has expressed strong interest in your volume on Spain. By the way, I received a copy of it from the Washington Post which wants me to write a brief note of 200 or 300 words for a forthcoming Sunday book page.

With continuing warm regards, I remain

Cordially,
