Dear Mr. Torreblanca:

Mr. Willever advises me that he can arrange to transmit your personal messages DH, from London, Antwerp and Paris, by a means he will explain to you in New York.

I will wire Mr. Willever the date of your arrival at New York, and I know that he will be pleased to arrange for courtesies there. Most sincere wishes to you and Mrs. Torreblanca for a very enjoyable journey and a safe return home to Mexico. GOOD LUCK.

Very sincerely yours,

Superintendent.

Mr. Fernando Torreblanca,
Hotel Majestic,
PARIS.

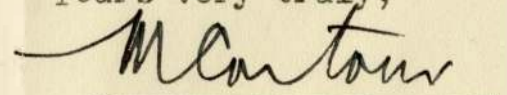

Dear Mr. Torreblanca,

I take pleasure in advising you, in confirmation of our telephone conversation of this morning, that I am authorized to accept personal cable messages from you without payment of tolls. I hope I shall have the pleasure of making your acquaintance before you leave Paris, and shall then be able to explain to you why I should much appreciate it if you would treat this matter of free cables as confidential, and arrange to let us have any messages you wish to send in closed envelopes addressed to: Mr. Cartoux or the Supervisor on Duty. If you have any difficulty in having the hotel people bring us your messages, please do not hesitate to ask us to send one of our messengers, at any hour of the day or night.

I shall be very glad to give effect to any instructions you may care to give concerning the handling of your official telegrams from France or with regard to cables you expect to receive whilst here. For instance, if you wish us to deliver telegrams to you, during certain hours, elsewhere than at the Hotel Majestic, kindly let me know.

I understand you will travel in other European countries beside France, and as we have not our own offices in all cities, it would be very desirable, if convenient to you, that I should have some idea of your itinerary, to enable me to make advance arrangements for handling your cables. If you could possibly spare me a little of your time, I would gladly keep any appointment you may care to make, when we could talk over all these matters in detail.

Yours very truly,

General Manager.

Dear Sir,

I am very sorry to hear from Mr. Gurewitsch, our Agent in Switzerland, that you are indisposed and are likely to be some weeks at Mont Pelerin in consequence.

Mr. Gurewitsch has been instructed to consider himself at your disposal if there is any way in which the Western Union can serve you. If you care to mail to me any personal messages you may wish to send I shall be very happy to cable them to Mr. Willever in New York who will see to their delivery. If you will be good enough to let me know your movements after you leave Switzerland I shall be glad to instruct our Agents in the different European countries to place themselves at your service.

Trusting that you will soon be completely restored to health and that I shall have the pleasure of seeing you in London before long.

Yours very truly,

GENERAL MANAGER.

Dear Sir,

I am acknowledging receipt of your letter of the 15th ult., and I thank you very much for it, and for your wishes you expressed for my health, which fortunately, I am recovering. I have received the kind offer of Mr. Gurewitsch and took some arrangements with him concerning the cable service. As regard to your proposition to mail my personal messages to New York, I regret that I cannot accept it, because I have already taken the suitable arrangements with your representative in Paris.

As soon as I leave Switzerland, I shall be pleased to let you know my movements as you kindly suggest. I am very glad indeed to have the opportunity of expressing my very sincere thanks for all the attention received from all your representatives abroad.

Thank you again for your letter and wishes. I am, dear Sir, very truly yours.

Dear Mr. Torreblanca,

I duly received your communication of the 25th July, but regret to inform you that my Company has no branch office in Mont-Pelerin and, therefore, it is not possible for me to arrange for your telegrams to be accepted locally.

In the circumstances, I would ask you to continue to mail your telegrams to me in Paris, so that they may receive my personal attention. On the other hand, it would be possible to send you any telegrams received from America direct to your address in Mont-Pelerin and I would ask you, therefore, to let me know if these messages should be addressed to you at Mon Repos, Mont-Pelerin, and for how long these instructions are to stand.

I am sorry circumstances prevent me making better arrangements than those proposed above.

Dear Mr. Cartoux,

I have duly received your letter dated 28th. last by which you inform me that, as your company has no branch office in Mont Pélerin it would not be possible for you to arrange for my telegrams to be accepted locally. I have fortunately been able to settle the matter with your representative in Zurich. Nevertheless, I am grateful for all the trouble you have taken.

If it is not asking too much trouble for you, I should be very much obliged to you, if you could make suitable arrangements to the purpose of having any message addressed to me, forwarded through to my actual address, till further notice.

Thanking you for your kind attention, I am,

Yours sincerely,

During my short stay in Paris and after our conversation by phone, I went several times to your office wishing to greet you and to thank you personally for all the attentions of your Company towards me. Unfortunately, I was not lucky enough to meet you and I merely let my visit-card. I wished also to express my sincere desire of a prompt recovering of Mr Cartoux, who was ill at the time.

I received your letter concerning the cable sent on board of the "Europa" and as I have not yet received the advice of the amount of this telegram, I should be very much obliged if you could let me know the cost of the above amount in order to settle it immediately.

Park Lane, W.C.

Dear Sir,

I regret very much that I am unable to accept your courteous invitation to lunch on 27th June, but I am obliged to leave London tonight for a few days. I hope to have the pleasure of meeting you next week.

Yours very truly,

GENERAL MANAGER.
