Dear Dr. Villegas:

It was good to hear from you and know that you are well.

As to my recollections of the Revolution, I have just finished an autobiography in which I have one chapter on Pancho Villa and another on my experience with Obregon.

I would be glad to have you use them with credit, but if it will not interfere with my copyright on my book, which is now in the hands of a publisher, although I do not know if he will take it. If you think this material worthy of appearing in your history translated into Spanish and your copyright will protect my book, I would be glad to send you typescripts of these two chapters.

I am going to be in Austin at the end of January and I hope you will be there then or will come to New York soon so I may have the pleasure of seeing you again.

With renewed best wished for a Happy New Year, I remain

Cordially yours,

Edward Larocque Tinker

Distinguido amigo:

Unas cuantas líneas para agradecerle su carta de enero 5, así como para explicarle mi interés acerca de sus memorias.

No reside éste en que yo pueda usar el material para el tomo que me falta de mi Historia Moderna, puesto que esta se limita al período 1867-1911 (Entiendo que el conocimiento que usted hizo de Pancho Villa fue ya durante la Revolución constitucionalista, y no la maderista).

He estado en Austin durante los meses de octubre a diciembre del año pasado. Verá usted que no hay probabilidad alguna de que repita en este mes la visita.

Con mis mejores deseos, siempre suyo, amigo.
