Dear Sr. Calvillo:

In Mr. Finkelstein's absence, I am acknowledging your letter to him of 3 July and the enclosed invoice for the purchase by the Endowment of 250 copies of México y el Orden Internacional at a cost of $437.50. We are very grateful to you indeed for sending us the bill so promptly and take pleasure in sending you the enclosed check for the amount due.

I am enclosing a list of 210 libraries, organizations, and individuals likely, in our opinion, to make good use of the volume. If any of these raise questions in your mind, I hope you will not hesitate to get in touch with us. As far as the remaining 40 copies are concerned, we would appreciate it if you would send us 10, retaining the rest for whatever use the Colegio may wish to make of them. If you prefer, you may of course send us the entire 40, but it occurred to us that there might be occasions when the Colegio would wish to make a free copy available to someone and might appreciate having these copies at its disposal.

As we have mentioned previously, we would prefer not to have the Endowment's name associated with this complimentary distribution of the volume. If you would like to send them out with the compliments of the Colegio de Mexico, you are quite free to do so.

Thanking you again for your promptness and courtesy,
I am,

Sincerely yours,

Marian Neal Ash
