Dear Sir:-

Your remittance on account and notation in regard to the Atlas offer duly received and noted. Evidently you have misunderstood the reference to the Atlas and we are enclosing herewith a copy of the special offer which we referred to on the statement.

Our supply of Atlases is nearly exhausted but if you would like to secure one on basis of the proposition as stated in the accompanying letter, and will let us know by early return mail, we will lay aside one of the Atlases for you to be forwarded as soon as the second payment has been received.

Thanking you for your patronage, we beg to remain

Yours truly,

THE GROLIER SOCIETY.

Gentlemen:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your favor of the 17th ult. and take pleasure in enclosing herewith draft #10116- in your favor and against the Wells Fargo Nevada Natl. Bank, for $45.00 which together with my previous two remittances of $5.00 each, make the total of $55.00 to cover price of "El Tesoro de la Juventud" which I have not received up to date.

I trust that you will order mailing of the books at once and also of the Atlas. I wish to call your attention to the fact that I am making cash payment for the total amount, whereas in your special offer you only require a payment in ten days and the second after thirty. So if there is any deduction to be made, kindly mail check to cover.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir -

RECIBIDA

CONTESTADA

We beg to acknowledge receipt of your favor of February 1st with remittance on account and regret very much that there should have been any delay whatever in the delivery of the books.

We trust, however, that you have received the books before this writing but we had shipped the books for all our subscribers and supposed that the deliveries had been properly made by the local transfer company several weeks ago, and were only recently made aware that the delivery had not been promptly cared for.

We have made a change in transfer companies and trust that you and other subscribers have received the books.

We are sending you the ATLAS under separate cover.

Thanking you for the favor, we remain

Yours truly,
