General Alvaro Obregon,
Nogales, Sonora, Mexico.

My dear General:

CONTESTADA

Your letter, addressed to me at Central City, Nebraska, has been forwarded here and I note, with extreme pleasure, that you have so kindly forwarded me to that address, a copy of your book, "Ocho Mil Kilometros en Campana." I certainly appreciate your kindness in doing this at the indication of Col. M. M. Parker and when reading your book, which I shall, with keen pleasure, I will recall the several instances upon which you have manifested so kindly an interest in the affairs of the undersigned and the interests which I represent in the State of Sonora.

Again thanking you for your kindness, which is much appreciated, I remain,

Yours very sincerely,

W E Richardson
