

FERNANDO ALATORRE

CONSUL OF MEXICO

New Orleans, La.,
30 de mayo de 1932.

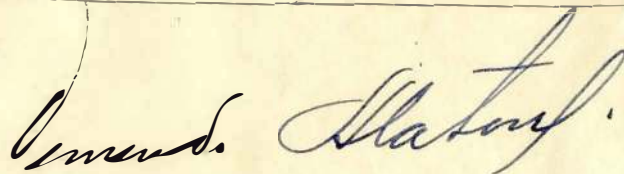

Sr. Fernando Torreblanca.
Paris, Francia.

Distinguido Jefe:

Al tomarme la libertad de felicitar a usted en su onomastico, y, considerando que quizas desee usted conservar un recuerdo de su brevisima estancia en este Puerto, acompaño a la presente el "recorte" del diario "The Morning Tribune", en el cual aparece la fotografia de usted y de su familia.

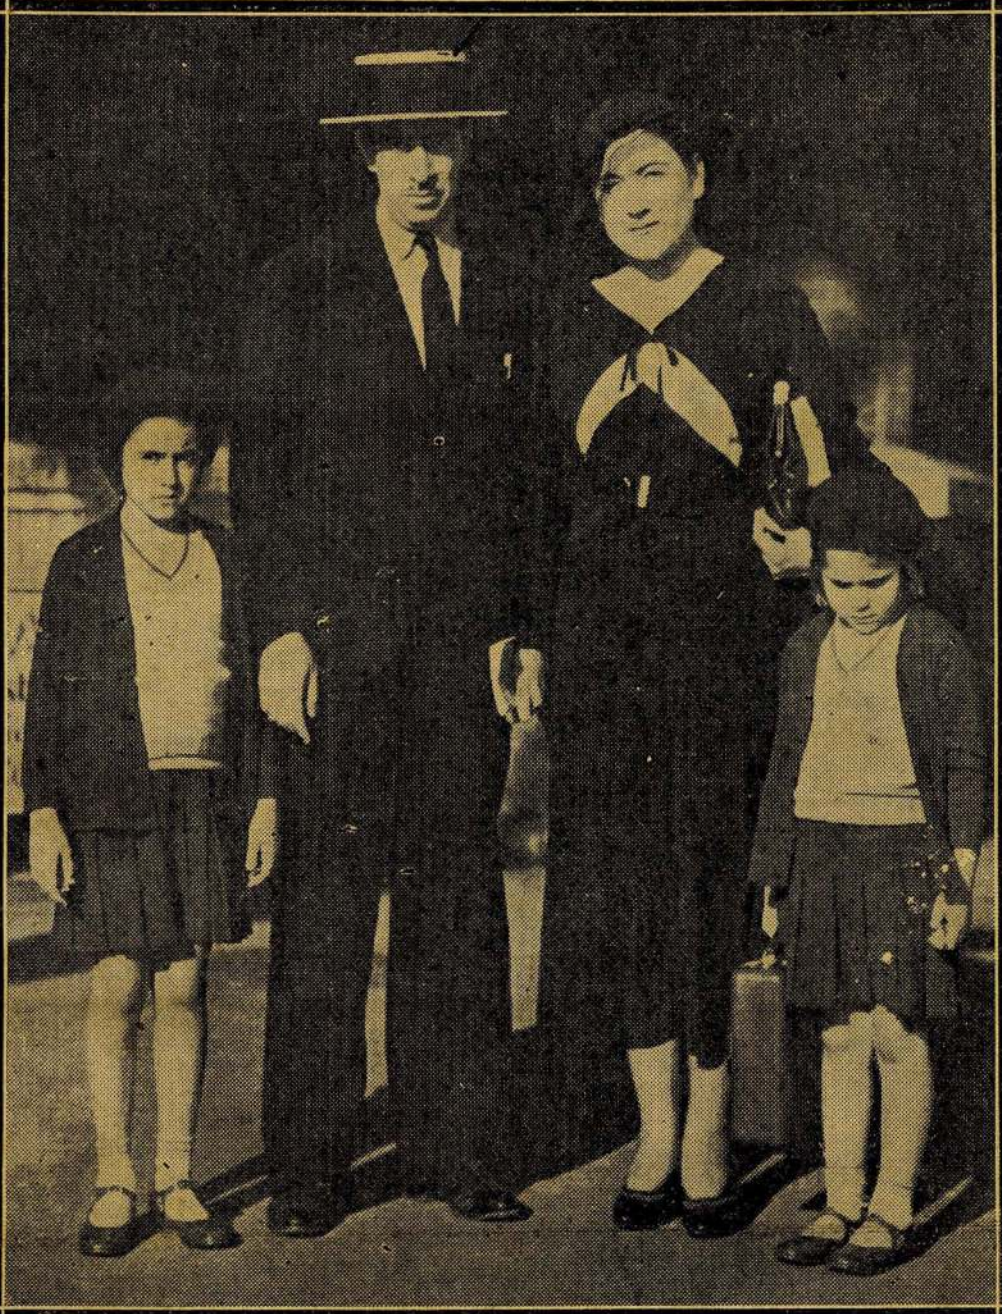

Ignorando el sitio de Europa al cual se dirige usted, he creido que lo mas conveniente era remitirle la presente al cuidado de nuestro Consulado General en Paris.

Deseandole un pronto restablecimiento en sus males, y con la suplica de que presente nuestros respetos a su senora, (c.p.b.) quedo de usted con toda atencion como su subordinado y amigo.

Mexican Official And Family Pass Through City

FERNANDO TORREBLANCA, under-secretary of foreign affairs in Mexico, and his wife, a daughter of former President Calles of Mexico, were in New Orleans yesterday. They are en route North, whence they intend to go to Europe on a special mission for President Ortiz Rubio. With the couple are their daughters. Left to right are HORTENSIA, their daughter, 8; SENOR TORREBLANCA; SENORA TORREBLANCA, and NORMA, their daughter, six.

MEXICAN, WIFE STOP IN CITY

Government Official
Pauses Here On Business
Trip North

Fernando Torreblanca, under-secretary of foreign affairs in the cabinet of President Ortiz Rubio of Mexico, and his wife, Hortensa Calles de Torreblanca, daughter of former President Calles, spent the day in New Orleans yesterday with their two young daughters on their way North on an "important mission."

"We are going to spend about three months in Europe on a special mission for the president," Senor Torreblanca said. "What it is I cannot tell you; I am not even telling Senor Andre Horcasitas and the other New Orleans people who are seeing me while I am here."

The Torreblancas were met on arrival of the Southern Pacific at 7:35 a. m. by Fernando Alatorre, Mexican Consul, Adolfo Dominguez, vice-consul, Mr. Horcasitas of the Mexican railways, and other members of the Mexican colony at New Orleans. They spent the day seeing the city and left at 5 p. m. by the L. and N. railway. On their arrival in New York they will leave on the steamship Europa for Europe.

"Mexico is very happy and peaceful now," Senor Torreblanca said. "The business depression has not effected us greatly and the country is doing very well." He described previous visits to the city and told of his pleasure in being here again, "if only for such a short time."

Senora Torreblanca has also been in New Orleans before, living here about eight months when Arturo M. Elias was consul. Their children, Norma and Hortensia, are six and eight years old.

PARTICULAR.

Paris, 24 de junio de 1932

Señor Fernando Alatorre
Cónsul de México
New Orleans.

Estimado amigo:

He recibido con toda oportunidad su atenta carta del 30 de mayo pasado así como el recorte del diario "The Morning Tribune" que se sirvió usted enviarme y que le agradezco.

Al dar a usted las gracias por sus buenos deseos, me repito su atento amigo y S.S.

---

F. Torreblanca.