Dear Miss Rodney:

May I acknowledge your note of January 9th and the Program and List of Participants for the Seminar on Latin America in the Last Third of the 20th Century.

Both documents look impressive enough to care a modest man like me, but I shall be there.

May I ask you a favor? You introduce me as Director of El Colegio de México. I retired from El Colegio five years ago, and have no connection with it. If you need refer to me in any further documents, please use "writer". It is a rather vague title, but then there are so many no more concrete or descriptive.

Yours sincerely
