NEW YORK

LEWIS L. CLARKE,
PRESIDENT

HERBERT N. ARMSTRONG,
ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT.

October, 6, 1920.

My dear Mr. President:

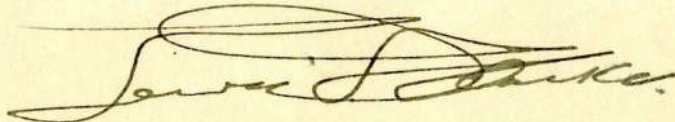

Mr. Wm. H. Moseley, Jr., the brother of our Vice-President Mr. Mercer P. Moseley, and the representative of our Bank in Oklahoma and Texas is a member of the Houston Chamber of Commerce party who are your special guests.

In view of the fact that we did not learn of Mr. Moseley's contemplated visit to your City until today, and as he starts tomorrow, he would not receive letters of introduction should we forward them to him; therefore I am writing to your good self in order that you may know I am deeply interested in him, and that anything you have to say to him will be a direct message to us.

Moseley is a fine fellow and commands our entire confidence, and I do hope that in chatting with him you will be perfectly free in talking as to the present and the future of your great country.

I beg to remain with very warm regards and sentiments of esteem,

Faithfully yours,

Hon. Alvaro Obregon,
Nogales Sonora,
Mexico.

Señor Lewis L. Clarke, Pres.
The American Exchange Nat'l. Bank.
New York, City, N. Y.

Muy estimado señor y amigo:

Con todo gusto recibí su atenta carta fechada el 6 del mes en curso, relativa al señor Wm. H. Heseley Jr., manifestando a usted que el mencionado señor será debidamente atendido, al igual que todas las personas que vengan recomendadas por usted.

Le saludo con afecto y me repito su atento amigo y seguro servidor.
