Gen. Alvaro Obregon,
President Elect of Mexico,
Mexico City, Mexico.

Dear General Obregon:

This letter will serve to introduce my very good friend Mr. H. H. Adams, formerly of Dallas, and now of Washington, D. C. Mr. Adams was a prominent Dallas citizen, and is now associated with the General Electric Company, a very large concern, of which you undoubtedly know.

Any courtesies which you may extend will be appreciated by him and by me.

I am still hoping to have the pleasure of seeing you in early December. I want to tell you again how much your visit meant to Dallas and to Texas, and above all, how much it meant to me personally.

With cordial best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,
