PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

New Orleans, Nov. 3, 1924.

Gen. Plutarco Elias Calles,
C i t y.

Dear Gen. Elias:

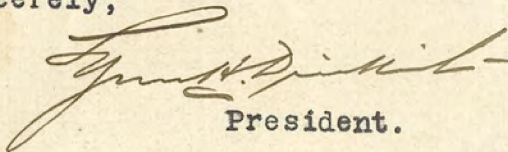

Introducing Mr. Caldwell.

This will be handed you by Mr. T. B. Caldwell, Jr., who is connected with "Mercurio". He seems to have an excellent idea to sell Mexico to the United States.

Will you kindly grant Mr. Caldwell an interview? I think his ideas are worthy of your careful consideration and, if accepted, will tend to make Mexico very popular and well thought of in the United States.

My interest in Mexico prompts me to write this introductory letter.

Sincerely,

President.
