WASHINGTON, Dec. 9—Japanese firms and individuals in the American republics tonight were put by the State Department on a blacklist and so denied the benefits of American trade. Similar action has previously been taken with reference to individuals and firms having German and Italian business connections.

The list issued tonight contained 470 names and was the first devoted to Japan. It contained the names of several non-Japanese individuals who have important affiliations with Japanese enter-
