

68.04.18

Dear Pedro Slich,

We are eagerly awaiting your paper so that it may be reproduced in time to be read before the conference. Our plan is to have each panelist summarize his paper in 5-10 minutes.

Sincerely

David Chaplin

P.S. The other papers will - I hope - be forwarded in time.

301.32
C 7485
1968P
no. 4

Washable Bond
25% COTTON FIBER

Tentative Schedule

POPULATION PROBLEMS AND THE
DEVELOPMENT OF LATIN AMERICA

May 3-4, 1968

Wisconsin Center

University of Wisconsin

Friday, May 3

9:00-12:00
(Auditorium)

I. POPULATION GROWTH, PUBLIC POLICY AND DEVELOPMENT

Moderator: Norman Ryder (Sociology, UW)

Panelists: 1) J. Mayone Stycos (Sociology, Cornell)

"Public Opinion and Fertility Control"*

2) Msgr. Ivan Illich (Catholic Documentation
Center, Cuernavaca, Mexico)

3) Sidney Greenfield (Sociology, UW-Milwaukee) and Arnold Strickon (Anthropology, UW)

"Fertility Control and Development Planning
as a Decision Making Process"

4) Vivian Epstein (Political Science, UW)

"The Politics of Birth Control in Latin America"

1:30-4:30

II. SOCIO-ECONOMIC ASPECTS OF POPULATION GROWTH

Moderator: Arnold Strickon (Anthropology, UW)

Panelists: 1) David Chaplin (Sociology, UW)

"Female Employment and Fertility"

2) Richard Miller (Business, UW)

3) Hans Schmidt (Economics, UW)

4) Miles Galvin (Industrial Relations, UW)

Cocktails and Dinner.

Saturday, May 4

9:00-12:00

III. THE HISTORY OF POPULATION CHANGE IN LATIN AMERICA

Moderator: John Phelan (History, UW)

Panelists: 1) Woodrow Borah (History, Berkeley)

"Colonial Demography of Latin America"

2) William Denevan (Geography, UW)

"The Aboriginal Population of Tropical

America: Problems and Methods of Estimation"

3) Herbert Harvey (Anthropology, UW)

"Indian Population of Mexico"

4) David Sweet (History, UW)

2:00-4:30

IV. AGRARIAN POLICY AND POPULATION GROWTH

Moderator: Charles Anderson (Political Science, UW)

1) Lee Fletcher (Agricultural Economics, Iowa State)

2) William Thiesenhusen (Agricultural Economics, UW)

*Topics are tentative, and not necessarily the titles of papers.